Regional Vice President

Your Regional Vice President, Gary Proco, can customize services and training to help meet the needs of each individual agent who has placed a commitment with North American. As your Regional Vice President, Gary can also assist you in determining case placement, sales strategies, and active recruiting.

Gary joined North American with over 19 years of experience and brings with him success in managing the general agency distribution channel. He has worked directly with the clients and understands what your agents face every day. So put Gary to work helping you better support your agents. His philosophy is very simple; if you win, we win.
